Making a lot of Noise
about ISSUES

Attendees at rallies will be divided into 2-groups, either by sex (male and female), or location (stage left and right, front and rear, and other areas). The groups should be similar in size.

A sound level (decibel) meter is recommended at rallies to measure and compare the noise created by the groups. The Candidate, or host, introduces the game; forms groups; and, explains the rules for the “Shoutout” competition. The purpose is to popularize and grow the Marxist Democrats brand. The “Shoutout” can also be used for marches and other public events. A gesture, or prop, will signal responses from the 2-groups competing. For example: “When I raise my left hand, I want all of the ladies to shout: MARXIST. When I raise my right hand, I want the men to shout: DEMOCRATS. OK?”

After playing “Shoutout” a few times at rallies, attendees will become pros at branding Democrats; and, the public will enjoy mimicking the game. “Guess Who?” segments, featuring huge crowds, will be used for television and radio commercials.

“SHOUTOUT” Branding also educates voters about the failed, and dangerous, Democrat policies threatening our freedoms and liberties.

After each Shoutout response, President Trump (or candidate) will present a short commentary about the “Guess Who” question.

For example:

“Who hates America and wants to destroy our Constitution?”

(Shoutout Response: “MARXIST... DEMOCRATS”.)

Commentary: “They have plotted and planned for years to takeover our government and replace our Constitutional Republic with Marxism — the cruelest and most oppressive form of Totalitarianism. You own nothing and are treated like a prisoner We must stop calling them Progressives, which Stalin created; and, Socialists, which 50% of Millennials think are better than Capitalist, thanks to our schools. Socialism has never worked, and is used to redistribute wealth. It’s Authoritarianism disguised as Equity, a Marxist ideology. Nazis, Fascist, and Communists are Socialists. Don’t be fooled by their deceptive rhetoric. They are Marxist Democrats, and they hate America. OK, let’s try another question.”

Here are a few sample questions:

“Who is abusing children, and denying parents their rights?”

“Who is responsible for the deaths and enslavement of thousands of women and children caused by open borders?”

“Who brainwashes and sexualizes our kids in Public Schools?”

“Who is weaponizing our legal system and government agencies?”

“Who cheats in elections and steals our votes?”

“Who is bankrupting our economy, and refuses to cut wasteful spending?”

“Who censors free speech, and our right to protest the barbaric killing of God’s Babies by Abortion Clinics?”

“Who promotes and sanctions unhealthy, unnatural, and abnormal sexual practices?”

“Who uses the media to control information essential to self governing, as a Constitutional Republic?”
